FWPD and FWISD work together to provide high school students in grades 10 through 12 the opportunity to participate in the High School Police Academy curriculum, leading to a greater understanding of the law enforcement field, and receive elective credits with FWISD. Course credits will be awarded through FWISD for high school academic and diploma requirements.

FWPD and FWISD will collaborate in developing, supporting, and operating the law enforcement component of the program. Students will gain appropriate work-based educational experiences designed to prepare students for positions in identified law enforcement fields.

Wyatt High School. FWISD will provide student transportation to and from FWPD Bob Bolen Public Safety Complex, 505 W. Felix Street, Fort Worth.
